

Theatre Royal Plymouth Announce Funky Llama Club Night At Home!

Theatre Royal Plymouth's Funky Llama is back and like you have never seen before! This January they are bringing their funky, futuristic Club Night event straight to you in the comfort on your own home.

Funky Llama Club Night At Home is an interactive website experience that takes you on a virtual journey into the world of their infamous Club Night event. With new and exclusive footage from Funky Llama artists along with gems from the archives, a virtual DJ Disco room, cocktail and mocktail making masterclasses, a glitter bar, crafts and a photobooth area. This is the event to kick off your 2021 in style and blow away those January blues!

Sara Rhodes, Engagement Manager at Theatre Royal Plymouth said: "We are thrilled to bring the Funky Llama Club Night experience to people in the comfort of their own home this January. Like many, our in-person events have been cancelled this year, so we have been working hard with our Driving Force steering group to develop an accessible, interactive virtual experience that encapsulates all the amazing features of our Club Night event."

"We have worked with some really talented local web and game developers to create something innovative and exciting that will include a virtual DJ disco room and new and exclusive footage from Funky Llama artists along with fantastic footage from disabled artists from across the country who have previously performed on our Funky Llama stages. There really is something for everyone!"

Funky Llama is one of TRP's flagship projects that celebrates the creative talents of disabled adults. As the only project like this in the South West of this scale, it increases the amount of arts opportunities on offer throughout the region. This year has seen some changes to the project, with usual meetings and events being held online, but they are thrilled to be able to offer this fantastic Club Night At Home event.

Launching on Friday 8th January for 3 weeks only, you can spend as much time as you like partying your days and nights away and all for FREE!

To make your experience even more funky, you can sign up for one of the Club Night At Home Packages by filling out the form on the TRP website by Friday 04 December. Packages are free and include lots of amazing Funky Llama goodies and merchandise including eco glitter, bubbles, glowsticks, a t-shirt, tote-bag, poster and more!

Funky Llama is made possible by the generous support of everyone who donates to Theatre Royal Plymouth and funding from The National Lottery Community Fund.

ENDS

For further information please contact the Media and Communications team on mediaandcommunications@theatroyal.com / 01752 230439

Theatre Royal Plymouth (TRP) is a registered charity providing art, education and community engagement in Plymouth and across the region. It engages and inspires with the aim of touching lives as the South West's principal centre for performing arts. Theatre Royal Plymouth presents a year-round programme of world class productions on all scales.

Theatre Royal Plymouth works with partners to understand the challenges people face accessing the arts, especially vulnerable and disadvantaged people. It creates pathways that are genuinely accessible to those who might otherwise never get to engage with the arts. They collaborate to co-create and co-author work that represents the community, creating the space needed for people to tell their story in their own way.

Theatre Royal Plymouth is the UK's largest regional producing theatre. With a focus on embracing the vitality of new talent and supporting emerging and established artists. It collaborates with a range of partners to provide dynamic cultural leadership for the city of Plymouth.