NT Connections Returns to Theatre Royal Plymouth

As one of the National Theatre Connections 25 Partner Theatres across the UK, Theatre Royal Plymouth are proud to be hosting this year's NT Connections in The Drum for Southwest companies.

Each year the National Theatre commissions ten new plays for young people to perform, bringing together some of the UK's most exciting writers with the theatre-makers of tomorrow.

Every year, 300 youth theatre companies and over 6,000 young people from every corner of the UK are producing a Connections play.

Scarlett Sterne, Learning Co-ordinator at Theatre Royal Plymouth said: "We are really excited to welcome these nine companies to The Drum this April to follow on from their performances in their home venues."

NT Connections is an exciting opportunity for these young people to have the chance to work in a professional theatrical environment, offering them an insight into the world of performance. It is also a great moment to put Theatre Royal Plymouth on the map nationally and give that platform to young people within the Southwest.

Tickets are available to purchase on the TRP website for the eight different performances stretching from 05 – 09 April. If you're a school and want to get in touch about engaging with us here at TRP, please contact Scarlett on scarlett.sterne@theatroyal.com.

Theatre Royal Plymouth (TRP) is a registered charity providing art, education and community engagement in Plymouth and across the region. It engages and inspires with the aim of touching lives. Theatre Royal Plymouth presents a year-round programme of world class productions on all scales as the South West's principal centre for performing arts.

Theatre Royal Plymouth works with partners to understand the challenges people face accessing the arts, especially vulnerable and disadvantaged people. It creates pathways that are genuinely accessible to those who might otherwise never get to engage with the arts. They collaborate to co-create and co-author work that represents
