BIRMINGHAM ROYAL BALLET'S COPPÉLIA COMES TO THEATRE ROYAL PLYMOUTH THIS AUTUMN

This autumn, Birmingham Royal Ballet will bring love and magic in abundance to the southwest as the romantic ballet classic Coppélia comes to Theatre Royal Plymouth from 05 - 08 October. Love conquers all in Sir Peter Wright's joyous production of a family favourite, brought back to the stage by BRB for the first time in five years, with Léo Delibes' glorious score performed live by the 60 piece Royal Ballet Sinfonia.

Swanilda and Franz are getting ready to marry during their hometown's upcoming festival, just a few days away. When Franz finds his eye wandering towards the mysterious girl on Dr Coppélius's balcony, Swanilda takes matters into her own hands – but can she steer her fiancé away from the Doctor's guest and back towards the path of true love?

Don't miss this magnificent production, back for a strictly limited tour in 2022.

Theatre Royal Plymouth (TRP) is a registered charity providing art, education and community engagement in Plymouth and across the region. It engages and inspires with the aim of touching lives. Theatre Royal Plymouth presents a year-round programme of world class productions on all scales as the South West's principal centre for performing arts.

Theatre Royal Plymouth works with partners to understand the challenges people face accessing the arts, especially vulnerable and disadvantaged people. It creates pathways that are genuinely accessible to those who might otherwise never get to engage with the arts. They collaborate to co-create and co-author work that represents the community, creating the space needed for people to tell their story in their own way.

Theatre Royal Plymouth is the UK's largest regional producing theatre. With a focus on embracing the vitality of new talent and supporting emerging and established artists. It collaborates with a range of partners to provide dynamic cultural leadership for the city of Plymouth.
