Theatre Royal Plymouth's Young Company will present their latest production The Parent Show to audiences in The Drum from Thursday 25 – Saturday 27 August 2022.

Things I hope I inherit: Kindness. Eyes. Soul. Work ethic. Brains. Hair colour. Mum's fashion sense. Shoes. Clothes. Jewellery. Natural talents.

Things I hope I don't inherit: Grey hairs. Coats. Singing / dancing ability. Stubbornness. Dislike of animals. Fascination with Eastenders. Dad's fashion sense. His hairstyle (or lack thereof).

Join TRP's Young Company as we ride out the 80s, 90s, and everything since, in an attempt to find out who our parents were, before they had us.

Jane Pawson, Head of Learning at Theatre Royal Plymouth said: "The Young Company shows are a real vehicle for young people exploring their creativity, and creating interesting, innovative work that everybody should come and see. Their perspective on the world is unique and we channel that into these wonderful productions."

TRP's Young Company creates opportunities for anyone aged 5 to 25 to participate in theatre through workshops and performance. They perform three shows every year.

Young Company member Ella said: “It’s a really valuable chance to make new friends and perform such an interesting show that I don’t think you’d get the chance to do normally.”

Tickets for The Parent Show start at £5 each and can be purchased via the Theatre Royal Plymouth website.

Theatre Royal Plymouth (TRP) is a registered charity providing art, education and community engagement in Plymouth and across the region. It engages and inspires with the aim of touching lives. Theatre Royal Plymouth presents a year-round programme of world class productions on all scales as the South West’s principal centre for performing arts.

Theatre Royal Plymouth works with partners to understand the challenges people face accessing the arts, especially vulnerable and disadvantaged people. It creates pathways that are genuinely accessible to those who might otherwise never get to engage with the arts. They collaborate to co-create and co-author work that represents the community, creating the space needed for people to tell their story in their own way.

Theatre Royal Plymouth is the UK’s largest regional producing theatre. With a focus on embracing the vitality of new talent and supporting emerging and established artists. It collaborates with a range of partners to provide dynamic cultural leadership for the city of Plymouth.
